THE BIBLE, JUSTICE, AND THE PALESTINE-ISRAEL CONFLICT

In this book we hear the scream and the whisper of the poor, the sounds of death in the Occupied Territories, but also the whisper of life, resisting and offering hope for all of us.

-Nancy Cordoso,

Palestine and Israel Ecumenical Forum of the World Council of Churches

A book and speaking tour with the Rev. Dr. Naim Ateek, founder of the Palestinian liberation theology movement.

Rev. Dr. Naim Ateek is the leading voice of the Palestinian liberation theology movement. Co-founder of the Sabeel Ecumenical Liberation Theology Centre, he is a former Canon of St. George's Cathedral in Jerusalem. For three decades the Rev. Ateek has inspired readers with his ideas about justice and reconciliation in the Holy Land. Join us for the launch of his latest book, A Palestinian Theology of Liberation: The Bible, Justice, and the Palestine-Israel Conflict.
